Application for Early Parole Consideration Hearing

Inmate Name: _____ AIS#: _____

Current Hearing Date: _____

Alabama Code Section 15-22-28(f) allows the Bureau to deviate from parole consideration hearing dates in certain circumstances. To be considered for an earlier parole consideration hearing, all of the following questions must be fully answered with supporting documentation attached where required. Inmates who meet all of the criteria included in this form will be referred to the agency's Review Committee who may recommend an earlier parole consideration hearing date. Meeting all requirements of this application does not guarantee any inmate an earlier parole consideration hearing.

The inmate must have been eligible to be considered for parole on an earlier date under generally applicable rules or policies in effect on or before January 1, 2019. If the inmate does not meet this criteria, this application will not be processed.

- Has the inmate served a minimum of five (5) years of his or her sentence?  Yes  No
- Has the inmate completed any available evidence-based risk reducing programming?  Yes  No
*If yes, documentation showing completion of programming must be attached.
- Has inmate received an official positive report from a Department of Corrections staff member?
 Yes  No *If yes, the positive report must be attached. The positive report must be from an ADOC staff member authorized to provide such reports per ADOC policy.
- Inmate must attach letters of support from at least one of the following:
  - Office that prosecuted inmate's case
  - Victim or victim's representative
  - Alabama Attorney General's Office
  - Sentencing judge or his/her successor
  - Law enforcement official from the county of conviction (does not include Bureau staff)
- Has inmate received any violent disciplinarys during his or her present incarceration?  Yes  No
- Has inmate received any disciplinary of any kind during the three (3) years immediately preceding this application for an earlier parole consideration date?  Yes  No

Once the inmate meets all criteria listed above, the inmate will be assessed by the Bureau to determine his or her risk of potential re-offense. Only those inmates assessed as LOW or MEDIUM risk will be accepted for Review Committee.
