INSTRUCTIONS ON APPLYING FOR REVOCATION RECONSIDERATION

BEFORE COMPLETING THIS APPLICATION, READ AND REVIEW THE RULES IN ALABAMA ADMINISTRATIVE CODE R. 640-X-9-.07, WHICH CAN BE FOUND ON THE AGENCY'S WEBSITE (PAROLES.ALABAMA.GOV), AND THE INSTRUCTIONS BELOW.

- 1) All requests for reconsideration must be submitted on the Alabama Bureau of Pardons and Paroles's Application for Reconsidering Revocation of Supervised Release form (ABPP-7). The agency will not accept requests submitted any other way.
- 2) Fill out the form completely. If you do not recall the exact date of the revocation order, you may provide an approximate date. Incomplete applications will be rejected.
State compelling reasons and, if applicable, provide documentary evidence justifying your reconsideration request. If additional space is needed, you may attach ten additional pages (not including any documentary evidence) to this application. The following are examples of reasons and evidence that do not warrant relief:
 - Arguments that witnesses lied at the parole court hearing.
 - Mitigation arguments regarding an applicant's good behavior while incarcerated or while previously under supervision.
 - Disagreement with a sanction imposed if within the board's discretion.
 - Disagreement with the hearing officer's factual findings where testimony or other evidence is contradictory.
- 3) If you wish for the board to consider any documentary evidence, you must attach a copy to, and submitted it with, the application. Describe, but do not attach, any non-documentary evidence (e.g., a video) in your possession that you can provide later if requested.
- 4) If seeking reconsideration based upon an acquittal, dismissal (with prejudice), or nolle prosequi (with prejudice and without conditions) of all criminal charges relied upon by the board in its revocation order, you must attach a copy of the order from the court that disposed of the charges. Charges dismissed as a result of a plea bargain in which you pled guilty to one or more reduced or different charges do not justify reconsideration.
- 5) Sign and date the application. Unsigned and/or undated applications will be rejected.
- 6) Mail the completed application and all attachments to:

Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles
Attn: Board Operations
301 South Ripley Street
Montgomery, AL 36104

To receive consideration, applications must be postmarked within two months of:

- the date of the board order revoking parole or mandatory supervision; or
- the date of the court order of acquittal, dismissal (with prejudice), or nolle prosequi (with prejudice and without conditions).

Applications rejected for being incomplete, unsigned, missing required information, or failing to comply with the Board's administrative rules, may be resubmitted as a corrected application if postmarked within the applicable 2-month time period above.
